Information Sharing Declaration

It is necessary for insurance companies to share information in order to underwrite (assess and price the risks) policies fairly and lower the number of fraudulent claims.

In view of the above, I/we (and any person representing me) declare by the submission and/or signing of this document to:

- accept that it is in the public interest for insurers to share insurance information (including credit information);
- consent to my policy, claims or credit information being verified or shared with third parties in the ordinary course of business;
- accept that any information provided to the insurer may be stored in a shared database;
- consent to such information being given to any other insurance company and/or reinsurance company or its agent should there be a legitimate business reason for doing so;
- accept that this information may be checked against other legal sources or databases;
- and confirm that all information provided is true, correct and complete.
